nterstate Commission Adds to the Burdens of Stock Market—Serious Declines Made PRISONER ESCAPES

WALL STREET A BEAR PARADISE, COMMISSION CUTS WITH LOW 1910 RECORDS ON ALL LEADERS.

NEW YORK, June 29.—Today's reports were badly mixed, but genmarket was, in one way, a replica of erally damaging to the veracity of the veracity of the crop-killers, confirmatory of the more or less damage theory.

A Bad Jolt.

Entering the noon hour the market were crowded with interested parties.

Entering the noon hour the market received experted experted experted experted experted. looking on, trading in their minds and received another jolt, this time from endeavoring to obtain views of each the Interstate Commerce Commission endeavoring to obtain views of each other and of the professional room traders as to the prospects for the market being near the low point. It is evident that the low prices are attracting the general public in larger degree than for months, probably years, past, and that with a good display of strength, indicative of a positive turn there would be more public buying. Some investors took small lots in sufficient quantities to make a fair aggregate, but the evident trend toward gate, but the evident trend toward gate, but the evident trend toward toward trends to the strength of the professional room in a large batch of decisions reducting, not announced rates, but rates now in force between the Pacific coast and the Mississippi river.
